the paternal grandmother is far different than that of the maternal grandmother. -- KNOWS FOR SURE IN KENYA

DEAR ABBY: My son and DIL told everyone, including the other grandparents, who live near them, they wanted no visitors for at least six weeks. That sad grandma needs to brush up on her Skype and Facetime skills so she can see them frequently on her computer and phone. We do this with our kids.

In the first year, the baby learned our voices and saw our faces often. When we met again, it was like we'd always been there. -- COMPUTER GRANNY

DEAR ABBY: While she isn't invited to be there for the birth of her first grandchild, I'm sure her son and DIL will be begging her to come for the next one. After a week of no sleep, they are going to wish they had told her yes this time! -- GRANNY IN ILLINOIS

DEAR ABBY: When I declined my mother-in-law's offer to help out when my son was born, she paid to have a catering service deliver daily three-course dinners for two weeks so I wouldn't have to cook. It was the best gift I ever received, and I love her for it! -- LISA IN NORTH CAROLINA

New Yorkers React to Texting and Walking Service

A YouTube video player interface. At the top is a search bar with the text 'improv everywhere texting' and a magnifying glass icon, followed by an 'Upload' button with a dropdown arrow. The video frame shows a group of people in a city street. In the foreground, a person wears a bright orange vest with the words 'SEEKING EYE PERSON' printed in bold black letters. Other people in the background are also wearing similar vests. A semi-transparent black box with white text is overlaid on the video, stating 'THE MISSION: APPROACH REAL PEOPLE IN NYC TO HELP THEM TEXT AND WALK SAFELY.' The video player controls at the bottom include a play button, a volume icon, a progress bar showing '0:07 / 2:12', and icons for full screen, settings, and a Creative Commons license.
