What are “Preferences”?

Your Computer Has “System Preferences!”

What are Sys Prefs.

<http://support.apple.com/kb/ht2490>

The image displays two screenshots related to Mac System Preferences. The top screenshot is a browser window showing the Apple Support page for "Mac Basics: Set your preferences". The page includes a navigation bar with links for Store, Mac, iPod, iPhone, iPad, iTunes, and Support. The main content area features the title "Mac Basics: Set your preferences" and a sub-header "Using System Preferences". The text explains that System Preferences controls system-wide settings and is accessible from the Apple menu. Below the text is a screenshot of the System Preferences window, which shows a grid of settings categories including General, Desktop & Screen Saver, Dock, Mission Control, Language & Region, Security & Privacy, Spotlight, Notifications, Displays, Energy Saver, Keyboard, Mouse, Trackpad, Printers & Scanners, Sound, iCloud, Internet Accounts, Network, Bluetooth, Sharing, Users & Groups, Parental Controls, App Store, Dictation & Speech, Date & Time, Startup Disk, Time Machine, and Accessibility.

Besides changing the look and feel of your Mac, you can also let your Mac know how you prefer to work by using System Preferences.

Using System Preferences

System Preferences controls system-wide settings ("global" settings), and is available from the Apple () menu at the upper-left corner of the screen. System Preferences lets you adjust things like your screen resolution, keyboard control, mouse control, sound, printer settings, sharing settings, accounts, and more.
